

Internet Access for Families

FCC Chairman Ajit Pai has launched the Keep Americans Connected Pledge, which many broadband carriers have signed. For the next 60 days, its core provisions will:

- not terminate service to any residential or small business customers for their inability to pay their bills due to the disruptions caused by the coronavirus pandemic;
- waive any late fees that any residential or small business customers incur because of their economic circumstances related to the coronavirus pandemic
- open its Wi-Fi hotspots to any American who needs them

Additionally, limited income households can apply for $5 to $10 per month internet access from the following businesses:

- AT&T Access
- CenturyLink Lifeline

Charter Communications will offer free Spectrum broadband and Wi-Fi access for 60 days to households with K-12 and/or college students who do not already have a Spectrum broadband subscription and at any service level up to 100 Mbps.
